RCI was chartered, in part, to bridge the gap between the seemingly disparate elements of the roofing profession. It is the intent of Interface to connect with these elements, educate and inform about roofing-related topics, establish a common ground for discussion, promote Institute programs, and branch out toward even more people. Interface is circulated monthly to over 3,000 people (nationwide and overseas) including RCI members, specifiers, facility managers, owners, industry contacts, and a growing number of highly placed professionals. Interface is frequently distributed at various trade shows, as well as educational and institutional functions. The articles contained in this publication are intended to provide information that may be useful to members of the Roof Consultants Institute. RCI does not necessarily endorse this information. The reader must evaluate the information in light of the unique circumstances of any particular situation and independently determine its applicability. Entire contents, © RCI.

On the Cover: RCI's 17th International Convention & Trade Show was a resounding success. Clockwise, top right: Some folks north and south of Region VIII got a little confused as to whether it was the Rising President's Golf Tournament or Hockey Tournament. The pyramids were a constant background at the Moody Gardens Resort. Michael Janke introduced attendees to "Pink Thinking" during his keynote address. Members attended numerous informal educational sessions. The Trade Show enjoyed high attendance. Everyone let themselves be "moved" by the spirit of fun at the Annual Banquet. Albert Duwyn, RRC, took the gavel from Warren French, RRC. Folks chowed down at the Silent Auction for the RCI Foundation.
