

IIBEC Interface

WHY ADVERTISE IN IIBEC INTERFACE?

IIBEC Interface is the technical journal of the International Institute of Building Enclosure Consultants (IIBEC). IIBEC Interface educates and informs, establishes common ground for discussion, and provides a forum for the exchange of ideas and technical knowledge of new and existing building enclosures. Its focus is on design issues related to developing and maintaining optimal performance of new and existing building enclosures. IIBEC Interface publishes eleven times per year and has 3360 subscribers, most of whom say they read it cover to cover and save the journal for future reference. Our reader surveys also indicate frequent inner-office circulation of IIBEC Interface.
